BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

BY BOUTELLE & BURR. BANGOR ME., SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 3, 1877. VOLUME XLIV---NUMBER 261.

BANGOR

Daily Whig and Courier.

PUBLISHED MORNINGS

(No 1 East End Kenduskeag Bridge

BY

BOUTELLE & BURR.

A. G. BOUTELLE C. BENJ. A. BURR.

TERMS—$8.00 per year, $4.00 for six months, $2.00 for three months. Invariably in advance.

THE BANGOR WEEKLY COURIER

IS PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY,

at $2.00 a year, invariably in advance

AGENCIES

S. M. PETTENGILL & Co. 10 State St., Boston, and 37 Park Row New York are authorized Agents to receive Advertisements and Subscriptions at the same rates as required by us.

S. N. NICHOLS, Agent, No. 8 Tremont Street, Boston.

J. W. ROWELL & Co. Agents 41 Park Row N. Y.

ACE DODD, Agent, Boston.

LOCKE & LOCKE, Agents 54 Park Row N. Y.

Every bill must in all cases be paid in advance.

Ten cents allowed to the colored line above the time to which the subscription is paid. All papers discontinued when the subscription expires.

Business Cards.

FRED T. HALL & CO.,

28 Central Street,

Have all the Graham Flour made by Bouville Mills. Every one should try it.

Flour for Winter.

We have a few barrels of your choice for winter use, from $6.50 to $8 per barrel. Call and see before you buy elsewhere.

PORTER NEALEY,

5 and 6 West Market Square, Bangor.

TEA. TEA. TEA.

Fine Oolong Tea $1.00

Superior " 1.00

Nice " 1.00

Oolong, 1.00

We sell Tea at less than half the usual rates and guarantee perfect satisfaction. We only propose to Make Teas a Specialty, and ask you to examine our stock.

NORTON & FARRINGTON,

133 Exchange Street

FILES--------FILES.

NOW IS THE TIME to sharpen your saws and get ready for business. I have on hand

1000 Dozen Files

and am finishing off 1,000 Dozen per week which I am selling at

The Lowest Prices,

and warrant them equal to any imported. Send me your orders.

Old Files Re-Cut as usual.

JOB COLLETT, - - - Exchange St.

BOOK-BINDING

Paper Ruling and Binding done to match at lowest possible prices.

Particular attention to BANK BOOKS and LEGAL BLANK BOOKS made to order of best material and warranted to give satisfaction in every respect. Old books rebound, by

D. BUGBEE & CO.

OILS.

Pure W. Lard, Sperm, Whale, Pure Cod and W. V. Lub. Oils,

At Lowest Prices

Frank M. Rowe,

121 EXCHANGE STREET

FIRST SORT POTASH

For sale low by

F. M. ROWE.

Eaton Family School for Boys,

AT NORRIDGEWOCK, MAINE

(Kennebec R.R.)

Offers unequalled advantages for educating boys for business.

For full information, address H. F. EATON, Principal.

NOTICE

Whereas my wife Irving C. Hayley has left my bed and board without provocation, I hereby caution all persons against harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall not pay any bills of her contracting after this date.

J. M. CLARK.

Bangor Oct. 19

WANTED—Any Agent can make $300 per month selling our Magnetic Instantaneous Spring Book and Ink. No press, brush or water used. Send stamp for circular or $1 for Outfit. STANDARD MFG. MANUFACTURING CO. 70 & 72 DEY STREET NEW YORK. oct31tf

AUBURN FOUNDRY COMPANY,

IRON FOUNDERS AND

NICKEL PLATERS,

(Incorporated by the United Nickel Co. of New York)

AUBURN, MAINE.

All Orders will have Prompt Attention.

JASE WADSWORTH, Agent.

FIRE KINDLERS NO. 1.

Having made arrangements with shaving makers we are about, are prepared to deliver this article in bulk and necessary to lots of five barrels and over at any part of the city at 15 cents per bar. Each bag package. Cash on delivery.

G. H. ROBINSON,

oct16 Norombega Market.

Hardwood Butter Tubs.

The Highest price Butter Tubs, all sizes and kinds, GEO. H. ROBINSON

oct16 Norombega Market.

A New and Useful Idea.

Users have always suffered the want of a reliable measure for Vinegars. Call at Robinson's in Norombega and get a set of sealed and stamped measures. Throw away your rusty, tin, and be happy.

oct16

ROBINSON'S Improved Butter Jar, Best and cheapest covered. No one is to be convinced of its merits. Call and see it or send for circular. Wholesale and retail by

GEO. H. ROBINSON,

Norombega Market.

1877

Washing Soap.

THE BEST GOOD

G. H. ROBINSON,

oct16 Norombega Market.

THE GREAT

WHITE POLAR BEAR

Has not Come,

But we have received a new line of

GENTLEMEN'S

FALL and WINTER

Gloves and Mittens

---AND---

LADIES'

Patent Spring Fur Top

LINED MITTENS.

In addition to the above we have in

Gloves, Bracos, Hosiery, &c.,

We will pay special attention to the variety of dogskins in

SILK HANDKERCHIEFS AND MUFFLERS, which we

Fancy Ottomans, Broquet and Royal of which we have upon the counters

Best Shirt Ever Made

We keep all the best to be had and

CALL AND SEE!

ADAMS BROTHERS,

Kenduskeag Bridge.

oct3

NEW CLOAKS

---AND---

CLOAKINGS.

We have a splendid stock now open. Don't fail to see them.

J. T. RINES & CO.

oct17

NEW STOCK PLATED WARE!

Meriden Silver Plate A1 Tea Spoons, Forks, Knives, Cakes and Jam Knives to match. Call at Jewelers and go to order Engraving executed.

DANIEL WHITE,

oct11 No 2 Kenduskeag Bridge

H. & R. ATWOOD,

Wholesale Dealers and Packers in

PROVIDENCE RIVER AND VIRGINIA

OYSTERS,

19 Commercial Street, Boston.

We have a large IRON PIER at Providence River, and can furnish the trade daily at $1.00 per gallon solid. No Pickles sent. Orders in per gallon. Also PROVIDENCE RIVER NATIVES AND PLANTS

In the shell by the bushel or barrel.

oct13 oct13tm

FURNITURE

FURNITURE.

THE PLACE TO GET

GREAT BARGAINS

---IN---

Furniture of all Kinds

---AT---

G. W. MERRILL & CO.'S,

At the New Ware Rooms

Pickering Block, Main St.

oct6 1tw

PIANOS A SPECIALTY

Sm*

A. F. CHASE,

MERCHANT TAILOR,

AND DEALER IN

Gents' Furnishing Goods,

oct10 NO. 6, MAIN STREET.

Keep Out the Cold,

By having your

OUTSIDE WINDOWS,

or

RICE & SKINNER,

Successors to

H. H. FOGG.

oct19

NEW

BOOT AND SHOE STORE.

CONNERS BROTHERS

---AT---

No. 11 Main Street,

HAVE OPENED A

NEW BOOT AND SHOE STORE, which is thoroughly stocked with a large and complete line of fresh new goods of every pattern and style, made in the best material in New England. We devote our whole attention to and to no other goods, and we know that we can meet every taste and fancy of ladies and gentlemen.

BOOTS AND SHOES AND RUBBERS,

We give special attention to fitting Misses and Children's Boots, and we know we can please.

We shall sell at prices suited to the stringency of the times and invite all our friends to call and examine our stock.

CONNERS BROTHERS,

No. 11 Main St., West Side.

HOWARD CONNERS

sept1

Old Newspapers

for sale at this office.

Bonnets, Hats and Frames--In all the best new shapes--Velvets, Plushes, Satins, Silks and Ribbons--In all the new shades--Ostrich Plumes, Fancy Feathers and Ornaments, including many Novelties. We bought a large stock in N. Y. at lowest prices and all will be sold at the lowest city prices, at

C. W. COFFIN'S, 19 Main St.

JUST LANDED!

A LARGE STOCK OF

Unexcelled Lehigh and White Ash Coal,

Of the very best sizes. Consumers who are in want of Coal will do well to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

A. H. BABCOCK, 116 Broad Street.

oct10

Furnaces, Ranges & Stoves.

Walker & Brick and Portable Furnaces. Parties Contemplating Repairing their Furnaces for the coming season will find it to their interest to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere. Ranges and Stoves, Air Tight Stoves, Wood and Coal Stoves, Parlor Stoves with Nickle Trimmings, Sheet Iron, for sale low.

A. NOYES & CO.

Bangor, Oct. 1, '77. 1m

GETCHELL, LEIGHTON & CO.,

PLUMBERS,

29 CENTRAL STREET

July 12

RECENT RECEIPTS

At J. Waterman's Boss Clothing House.

Overcoats and Ulsters for Boys ages 10 to 15

Overcoats and Ulster for boys small size of the large men

Seventy-five different styles in Overcoats and Ulsters ranging in prices from $2.50 to $18.00 acknowledged by all the best tailors and makers in the State and equal to custom made.

Our Reading Clothing will suit the world from $2.75 up.

We have a very extensive line of Boys Suits all grades

In Men's Fall and Winter Suits Worsted Coat and Vest, we can show the best line in the market.

Remember that I guarantee to sell equal, if not better made goods at 15 to 20 per cent. less than any other house in the State. Call and be convinced.

J. WATERMAN'S,

77 Exchange Street, Bangor.

SIGN OF THE DISSEMBLED MAST

WHAT YOU CAN FIND

---AT THE---

JORDAN and MARSH

STORE THIS WEEK.

Black Silks, 75c, 87 1-2, $1.00, $1.25, 1.50 and $2.00.

Regular Goods like warranted to wear better than any others we sell. We can always offer

100 BEAUTIFUL CLOAKS.

We still have a good assortment of Children's Cloaks at $1.00 $1.50 $2.00 $2.50 $3.00 $3.50 $4.00 $4.50 $5.00 $6.00 $7.00 $8.00

Our Line of Cloaks cannot be Beaten in Style or Price.

100 Pairs Large Sized Blankets only $1.75 Pair.

One Case Remnant Cottons, only 4 1-2 Cents, Two Cases Prints, Good Styles, and Fast Colors, 5 Cents.

50 Pieces of all Wool Cashmere, all colors at 25 cents, are good value at 37 1-2 cents. Also a full assortment of

ALPACAS,

All colors and different grades. Would ask you to look at 12 1-2 cents. Will sell you Linen Warp Alpaca for 25 cents, worth 37 1-2 cents. Also a full assortment of that you cannot ask for that in Central Square. I will sell them cheap. Will sell

CORSET,

TREVOUSSE KIDS.

Three clasp, all colors every pair warranted.

We sell the Best Batting that is sold in Bangor for 12 1-2 cents, We sell the Best 3 yard wide Sheeting for 7 cents.

On Wednesday, Oct. 24th we shall offer a portion of these GOODS at 25 cents. It will positively be a chance which no lady can afford to miss. Store Open Evenings.

E. C. Nichols & Co.,

No. 9, Main Street, Bangor, Maine.

oct3

BEAR

In mind that M. MEHESY is a PRACTICAL FURRIER, has been in the business for 40 years, manufactures all goods himself, keeps a complete assortment of

FURS--

For Ladies, Gentlemen and Children, in all its branches and offers his goods

AT THE LOWEST MANUFACTURERS' PRICES.

His goods are all First Class, made by himself and warranted.

Please examine his Stock and be convinced that he cannot be Undersold.

oct27

DeWITT HOUSE, Lewiston, Me.

The Proprietors, formerly of the Franklin House, Bangor having leased the commodious Hotel for a term of years, are now prepared to entertain their old friends and the traveling public generally. The Hotel is pleasantly situated on the Corner of Pine and York Streets, nearly opposite City Building and Post Office, overlooking the Androscoggin forming one of the most beautiful locations in the State. It is also convenient to the principal places of business. It has all the modern conveniences of Steam Bath Rooms, Hose in Rooms, Billiard Hall. Also a first class Livery Stable. Carriages are always in waiting to take guests to and from cars.

ROYAL QUIMBY, EBEN MURCH, Proprietors.

nov27

GLOBE HOTEL.

This Hotel was built in the year of the Hayerman House, furnished new throughout with modern improvements, contains on first floor, Bath Room, Water Closets, Billiard Room and Ladies' and Gentlemen's Parlors. Free Coaches to and from the House.

TERMS, $2.00 PER DAY.

J. E. HARRIMAN, Proprietor.

Bangor, Jan. 31, '77.

PLUMBING, STEAM FITTING,

AND

WATER PIPING.

Also manufacturers of IRON CORNICE AND SKYLIGHTS. A large supply of PUMPS, STEAM and WATER FIXTURES constantly on hand.

All of our Work warranted both Workmanship and Materials to be First Class in every respect.

A. LEIGHTON & CO.,

Exchange, Cor. of York St.

aprils

Real Estate.

HOUSE FOR SALE.

A new two-story House with Holly Water privileges for sale with other modern improvements. Price thirty-two hundred dollars (3200). Situated on Lincoln Street, opposite City Common. Enquire at 54 Exchange Street or at Gammon & Short's corner Lime Rock and Garland Sts.

sept7 3m*

For Rent.

Tenement No 45 Fifth Street. Inquire of oct18 tf at Merchants Nat'l Bank

For Rent.

House on Birch Street. Enquire of

PITCH & ROLLINS

oct18 tf

For Rent.

A good convenient tenement, very pleasantly located, plenty of hard and soft water and Stable. Also No 6 Central Street above Harlow's. Enquire of

J. F. HARLOW,

oct17 tf No 71 Birch St

For Sale or Rent.

House No 8 Kenduskeag Avenue containing 9 rooms and bath room. Has gas fixtures, hot water and furnace, large lot and desirable location. Stable for 2 horses and cow with water. Plenty of fruit. Inquire at Exchange street.

oct 3

For Rent.

House No 6 Bird Street, containing 8 rooms and supplied with cistern and city water. Inquire of CUTTER & SON, 40 Cross Street.

Houses for Rent.

Two very desirable houses in good order with Holly water—one on Essex St. the other on Fourth St. with good sizable attachments, for quiet families. Rent reasonable.

GEO. W. YEATON,

oct9 4w 2 Smith Block

TO LET.

The Store on the corner shown in Harlow Block, Central Street, now occupied by Thomas Lyon & Co. Also the Store in the same block now occupied by Frank Hall as a Boot and Shoe Store. Apply to

S. C. HARLOW or RAMSDELL & NEAL

oct6

For Rent,

House on Hancock Street, No. 5. Inquire of

A. F. COBB.

oct6

For Sale or Rent.

House No. 1 Main Street, 11 rooms and Hot and Cold Water; Furnace, Range, &c. Apply to

C. V. TANSY, on the premises.

For Rent.

A pleasant and convenient upper tenement to let, containing six rooms and bath. Rent $12.00 per month. Inquire at No. 32 Exchange St.

sept18 tf

For Rent.

A convenient tenement with Hot and Cold Water, at No. 10 Harlow Block, at $8.00 per month. Inquire at No. 32 Exchange St.

sept18 tf

For Sale or Rent.

I now offer for sale or rent my House, situated on 44 Fifth St. Pleasant location and good neighborhood. Will sell cheap and on easy terms. Also 2 Wood Sheds, Stable and Carriage House, which I have just built. The house is in good repair. Possession given in two weeks.

sept15 L. H. PATTEN.

For Sale or Rent.

Brick House 109 Lincoln Street. Will rent good tenement and sell the furniture if desired. Painted all white inside and out. Has a good cellar, gas fixtures, &c. Also 2 Wood Sheds and Stable. Apply to

JOHN EVANS.

sept18

For Rent.

Office over F. B. Patten's Apothecary Store, No. 32 Exchange St. Apply to J. G. Buzzell, No. 11 West Market Square.

WANTED.

A small farm, near the city, where I can have a house and land. Address, stating location, price, &c.

ALBERT D. ANDREWS, 64 Exchange St.

may23

A $3000 INVESTMENT

IN MILLS & FARM.

Two to rent to front the city, which will have $600 permanent rent per year. Also a mine for sale at CHAMBERLAIN'S REAL ESTATE OFFICE, 60½ Hammond Street, where every will be attended.

oct 23 d&wtf

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

O. M. BROWN

Has just opened a new stock of NEW GOODS at the old stand at reduced prices. Those in want of

LOOK AT THE PRICES.

One case All Wool Filling Dress Goods at

All Wool Filling Basket Cloth, new 25 cts, worth 35

" Dark Prints at 5 cts, worth 8

" Wide Brown Cottons 6 cts, worth 7

" White Marseilles Quilts at $1.00, worth $3.00

A large line of New Lines for Men and Boys wear, from 50 cts to $1.00.

Clothing from 10 cts up.

In small Wares, all customers may depend on being as low as

Best Machine Thread for 5 cts

Hamburg Edging (two for five cts), also 4 4 at 10 12 up to 31 inch

One case of Corsets for 50 cts, well worth 85

A nice Ulster for 25 cts

Coats Shirting and Drawers 25, 35, 50 cts

One case Underwear at 50 cts, 12 at any cheap at 75

Children from 3 cts to 50, all sizes.

A large line of Ladies' Woolen Hose for 25 cts, worth 42

Children's and Misses' Hose from 12½ cts to 25, that are cheap.

Towels one yard long and one-half yard wide for 10 cts each

Linen Napkins cheap

A full line of Worsted Fringes in the new styles

Come and see the piles and piles of Goods that I have not room to give prices on, such as all Linen Crash at 11 cents per yard

O. M. BROWN

No. 15 West Market Square.

oct8

LOOK IN AND ENQUIRE THE PRICE

FLOUR.

We are selling

MAYO & APPLETON'S,

oct 6 CENTRAL ST.

DOWN WE GO,

AND

Work

STEAM, GAS & WATER FITTING,

AT BOTTOM PRICES.

We also keep a full assortment of FIXTURES, which we are prepared to put in position. Give us a call.

No. 7 State St., Bangor Me.

DOLE, PEAKS & CO.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

The undersigned have this day dissolved their copartnership. All persons having claims against the same are hereby notified to present them for payment, and all indebted to the same are requested to make immediate payment to

LEANDER DOLE, ISAAC PEAKS.

Bangor, Oct 9 1877 oct9

DON'T

CALL THIS WEEK WHEN you can get A FULL LINE of ALL KINDS of RUBBERS and RUBBER BOOTS

---AT---

BUZZELL & SHAW'S.

DON'T

Suffer with cold feet when you can get a pair of WARM BOOTS, SLIPPERS, ARCTICS &c. at bottom prices of BUZZELL & SHAW.

DON'T

Fail to look at the THICK SOLED WATKINS BOOTS in Kip and Split Leather. Also a full line of Misses' and Children's Boots. Has a full line of Rubber Goods. Just what is wanted for wet weather.

BUZZELL & SHAW.

DON'T

Forget to call at the Variety Store from the corner of both Hammond and Harlow Streets.

BUZZELL & SHAW'S.

oct18

Let Your Gaze Linger

ON THIS FOR A MOMENT

You can get an article of Jewelry, I wish one in order repaired in a nice manner, at 56 Hammond Street, opposite the Court House, better than ever before. Also any thing else in the line of Watches, Clocks and Silverware. This is a fact.

A. B. WILLIAMS.

All those indebted will please call and settle their bills as I am desirous of closing my business as soon as possible.

oct1 JOHN STEVENS.

Notice to Log Owners.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Penobscot Log Driving Company at their office in Bangor, on Monday, the 5th day of November next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of choosing Directors for the ensuing year, and the transaction of such other business as may legally come before said meeting.

By Order of Directors.

ABRAM MOOR, Clerk.

Bangor, Oct. 1, 1877. oct2td

HARD TIMES.

Make money by saving it—save it by buying at your

BOOTS, SHOES,

Rubbers and Furs,

---AT---

HERSEY & PLAISTED,

No. 16, Main Street.

A large and specially selected stock of

Gents' Russia Tie, $3.00

" Button Call Boot 4.50

" Alligator " 5.00

" Congress " 4.50

Ladies' Misses and Childrens'

BOOTS,

A SPECIALTY IN LADIES BOOTS.

Repairing done by Skilled Workmen.

Furs Made and Repaired,

By experienced Workmen.

No. 16, Main Street.

oct3

A CHAPTER

---ON---

Furniture Repairing.

Section 1 Commences

Section 2 Is at Hancock

Section 3 Is 6 to 10 St.

Section 4 Is a treatise which it takes years to learn.

CONCLUSION. If you want neatness, comfort, peace of mind, and all other favors to Make Lounges, Chairs &c. Warranted to be well repaired, call on

HENRY S. BROWN

Approved

Dissolution of Copartnership.

The co-partnership heretofore existing between the subscribers as THOMPSON & JONES, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business of said firm will be settled by Edwin S. Thompson who will continue the same at the corner of Union and Hammond Streets.

HORACE JONES.

oct18 2awdw* EDWIN S. THOMPSON.

Information Wanted.

Persons conveyed by blood or marriage with the New England branch of the CLARK family will confer a favor by communicating information to the undersigned, who is desirous of completing a genealogy.

I. M. CLARK, Jr.

oct16 eod4w East Boston, Mass.

HOWARD

Insurance Company,

OF NEW YORK.

CHARTERED 1825.

SAMUEL T. SKIDMORE, President.

HENRY A. OAKLEY, Vice President.

Insures Against Loss or Damage by Fire.

FOR POLICIES APPLY TO

LOCAL AGENT,

WIGGIN & CHAMPLIN, Agents,

BANGOR, ME.

marsly

Horse for Sale.

Seven years old, 15 hands high, weighs about 1000 lbs. Is a good family horse, and a fine horse, safe for women and children to drive. Has also a fine mare, 8 years old, weighs about 1000 lbs, is kind, good and sound. Will be sold cheap if applied for soon. Inquire at 101 Exchange St.

oct23

For Sale Cheap.

A good Horse 7 years old, weighs 1000 lbs. Inquire of

E. H. & H. ROLLINS.

oct23 tf

For Sale Cheap.

One Bone Horse, good driver and good worker. Apply to

BOWEN & ERALEY,

sept18 18 Exchange St.

CAUTION.

Whereas my wife, Sarah M. Overlook, has left my bed and board without provocation, I hereby caution the public against harboring or trusting her on my account, as I shall not pay any bills of her contracting after this date.

LEMUEL OVERLOOK.

Hermon, Oct. 20, '77. 1d4w*

Whig and Courier.

Daily Established 1834 -Weekly, 1845

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

For one square (one inch in the column) one insertion $1.00

For one square two insertions 1.25

For one square one week 1.75

For one square three times 2.00

For one square one week 2.50

For one square, three times each week, one month 5.00

For one square one month 6.00

For one square three months 12.00

For one square six months 20.00

For one square one year 30.00

SPECIAL NOTICES.

$1.50 per square for first week—$1.00 per square for continuance.

Business Cards and Engagements inserted at their lowest Special Notice rates.

Advertisements without directions inserted three times as required and charged accordingly.

Transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.

Advertisements under the head of Business Notices 10 cents a line for first insertion and 5 cents a line for each subsequent insertion.

STATE NEWS.

---BY---

Associated Press.

The Starch factory at Portland will run full time for three or four months, employing a large force of hands.

Preparations are being made for the supply of ice this season at Rockland, Thomaston and Camden.

Lumbermen are preparing for the woods with the prospect that more lumber will be cut this winter than for many years.

Drovers of cattle coming to Brighton for outside

Portland, at the latter place also going to Hartford, Conn., and Springfield, Mass.

Oxford

W. O. King of South Paris has sold this season's crop of Lost Nation wheat from the Cushman's seed, Mr. King also raised the hundred and twenty varieties of Marigold Wurtzel roots from which five quarts were found.

Piscataquis

At Abbot Upper Village a young boy, between 14 and 15 years old, broke into the house of Rev. Mr. Richardson's Sunday afternoon, while the family were at church and committed depredations to the amount of $100 or more. The thief was found out by having a pocket handkerchief marked with his name.

A Belfast peg mill has been found in the timber on the Red Hill Iron Works.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Baptist District Missionary Society will hold its next annual meeting with the Second Baptist church in Bangor, on Wednesday, following Quarterly Meeting Sunday. On Wednesday forenoon the Rev. Mr. Bowler, of Bangor, will preach the annual sermon before the society. In the afternoon the annual business meeting will be held, and in the evening addresses will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Bowler, of Bangor, and Rev. Mr. Hall, of Dexter. On Thursday forenoon the Rev. Mr. Hall, of Dexter, will preach the annual sermon before the Bangor Baptist Association, which will be followed by the annual business meeting of the society. In the afternoon and evening addresses will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Hall, of Dexter, and Rev. Mr. Bowler, of Bangor.

The Rev. Charles Morgridge, who has been for the last three years pastor of the Methodist church in Dover, Me., has received a unanimous call to the pastorate of the First Methodist church in Foxcroft, and will enter upon his duties there the first Sunday in November. Mr. Morgridge is a graduate of Bowdoin College, class of 1868, and of the Boston University, class of 1871. He is a gentleman of fine literary attainments and a good preacher, and will be heartily welcomed by the people of Foxcroft.

The Rev. Mr. Bowley, who was one of the delegation of Friends who attended the Friends' yearly meeting at Newport in 1867, on their way to be present at the inauguration of Grant, recently visited the yearly meeting of Friends in Canada, which is said to have been a very interesting season. The spirit manifested by Friends in that country is said to be very encouraging.

YANKEE RAILROAD MEN ON A TOUR IN THE PROVINCES

Major C. S. Haldeman, New England Manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and Colonel D. K. Allen, his assistant, have returned from a four weeks' business trip of over 3000 miles through New England and the British Provinces. They visited Montreal, Quebec, Father Point, Gaspe, Percé, Paspebiac, Dalhousie, Jacques Cartier Bay, Chatham, Newcastle and the beautiful country along the Miramichi Bay and river, Point du Chêne and Shediac, Summerside, Charlottetown, Mt. Stewart and Souris on Prince Edward Island, Pictou, Truro, Halifax, Windsor, Annapolis and Digby, Yarmouth, Acadia, Moncton, St. John, Fredericton and Portland. They speak in the highest terms of the variety of the scenery, the fine farms and farming in many parts of the country, the hospitality and grandeur of some portions of the unsettled, or nearly so,

CHURCH DIRECTORY

NewspaperARCHIVE®

Whig and Courier.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS

C. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR.

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr and communications intended for publication should be addressed Editor Whig and Courier.

SATURDAY NOV 3 1877

THE CONFEDERATE RAID ON THE ARMY AND NAVY

The Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs in the present House is Mr Banning of Ohio familiarly known as the boy soldier of Buckeye fame and incident of whose career of which he is the chief of is reported speaking Eph Hollenbeck in the Ohio Penitentiary Mr Banning believes in the policy of conciliation regardless Mr George William Curtis's high opinion thereof Kentucky only way to secure harmony and immediately restoring all the traitors of the South to the positions of trust which they betrayed It is his bounden duty to call the country's attention to the dastardly attempt to repeal the law which forbids the appointment of officers of the United States army or Navy to command in the militia or to abandon positions in the Navy or military or naval service to take part against the Government He will assert right to Banning's committee and the House generally Whether it will do so or suppress expression remains to be seen Nobody proposes to repeal the provision in the organic law which declares that the President shall be commander in chief of the army and navy of the United States and of the militia of the several States when called into the actual service of the United States but it is proposed to repeal the provision which authorizes the President to employ the militia to execute the laws of the Union suppress insurrections and repel invasions Nobody proposes to repeal the provision which authorizes the President to employ the land and naval forces militia to suppress insurrection against the government of a State on application of the Legislature or of the Governor when the Legislature cannot be convened Nobody proposes to repeal the provision which authorizes the President to employ the land and naval forces militia to enforce the faithful execution of the laws of the United States Nobody proposes to repeal the provision which authorizes the President to employ the militia to repel invasion Nobody proposes to repeal the provision which authorizes the President to employ the militia to suppress insurrection against the government of a State on application of the Legislature or of the Governor when the Legislature cannot be convened Nobody proposes to repeal the provision which authorizes the President to employ the Whig and Courier.

SATURDAY, NOV 3 1877.

BY TELEGRAPH.

MAINE NEWS.

SHIP WRECKED

New York Nov 2 The ship D M Ryman reported wrecked, belonged to Bath It was 1000 tons and had 1800 bbls of refined petroleum on board

FROM BELFAST

Obit

BELFAST Nov 2 Mrs Sally Crosby wife of Judge William Crosby and mother of Governor Crosby died Thursday morning after a lingering illness She retained her faculties to the last

FROM BELFAST

Serious Accident

BELFAST Nov 2 Judge Abel H Gilman was thrown from his carriage on Main street this morning and had his collar bone broken and received other injuries

FROM HOULTON

Dropped Dead

HOULTON Nov 2 George Carlisle a well known lumberman dropped dead in a logging camp near Smyrna Mills yesterday afternoon Family in Bangor

THE Y M C A

Annual Convention

BANGOR Nov 2 At the twelfth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association held in Auburn the following officers were elected officers for the ensuing year President C M Bailey Winthrop Recording Secretary B F Swan Lewiston Corresponding Secretary W H Hollis Portland Treasurer C A Wing Winthrop The report of the Secretary shows eight hundred and thirty members four hundred and forty seven active the past year and two new associations organized The afternoon and evening devoted to exercises and discussions of interest throughout the day and Sunday

DOMESTIC NEWS.

OUR ARMY.

GENERAL SHERMAN'S REPORT.

IT'S STRENGTH AND NEEDS

The Strength and Condition of our Army

NEW YORK Nov 2 Gen Sherman in his annual report that there has been no increase since last June as there is no money to pay expenses His last report showed a total Army of all kinds of every branch of the service 34,431 There are by law 10 regiments of cavalry or 10 companies 5 batteries of artillery or 60 companies and 4 companies of infantry or 250 companies Each regiment of cavalry regiment has 800 men Each battery 100 and infantry 100 If all these companies were filled there would be about 25,000 men There are a large number of officers and soldiers who do not carry muskets and say they are entitled to save Do you see them all around Headquarters They are performing the duties of clerks who in civil departments receive the same class of work from $100 to $300 per month

The Non-Combatants

Sheridan's headquarters and staff are in the army soldiers are all clerks They are better fed with a saving of a great deal of money and transportation The work has to be done by men not allow to employ citizen clerks even if he takes them in the field Here and there through an army combatants are detailed to do clerical work but the 600 in Virginia and Engineers battalion 105 men serving parties 647 men General Headquarters clerks employed at headquarters of the various department and armies 346 West Point detachment 178 men prison guard at Leavenworth 50 men hospital stewards 132 men recruiting service 114 men constructing parties 140 men total 2,201 To this add 5,000 men on the retired list employed in civil departments and a grand total of those not listed as serving on combat duty This leaves 18,000 for actual service There are 6,000 of them in the South and as there are 25,000 in the whole Southern States there are then 600 men and they are on guard or public property

The Army Bill—The Loss of Army

Congress ought to pass the army bill at once without any special legislation The army is in such condition that nothing should be added to the appropriation bill at the session debate While I was before the appropriation committee I was asked if I thought Congress would sleep over the matter I answered unhesitatingly that I thought Congress would not sleep over it The safety of the people the safety of the government and the government depends upon men Before the war there was only one gunboat on the Lake Superior or to Puget Sound Now there is a dozen line running through Wisconsin Arizona Montana and other States and Territories of the great West—lines all have to be protected The army is a civilization It is the pioneer to the wealth of the West Without its protection there would be a west without population or development

The Mexican Frontier

If there is a long and dangerous Mexican frontier in a condition of affairs that may any involve us in a war with Mexico nothing but the judicious conduct of army officers there can prevent war—the inhabitants along the border want war but it is not in the interest of government to engage in war at this time with Mexico

The Full Standard—As it Should Be

The regiments ought to be recruited up to the full standard so that we might have 25,000 effective men 50 privates and 10 non-commissioned officers in each company the clerks and all non-combatants called by their right names and not charged to the actual force of the army The President should be given the right to take from one regiment in an unexposed position any number of enlisted men and add them to another regiment in an exposed position in case of emergency

Effect of a Weak Army in the West

The fact is as I told the House committee the army is not getting on at all Why, in the West where I have been this summer officers had to carry muskets and the duties both as officers and privates Gen Gibbon carried a gun all summer long It is said by some that frontiersmen pioneers and settlers on the border are the best Indian fighters and can take care of themselves

Gibbon's Big Horn Force

How was it during the summer when Gen Gibbon went from Ft. Shaw to Big Horn? He could raise and scrape barely 140 men to fight 400 warriors. He was repulsed by 25 citizens and went into battle. Seven citizens were killed and five or six wounded Now, what becomes of the wounded citizens, and what will the families of the dead ones do? They cannot get pension and they are thus left off from support Settlers are beginning to understand that there is no fun in getting killed for a Government that will let their families starve afterwards

NEW YORK CITY

The Silk Smugglers.

NEW YORK Nov 2 John Scott, the Expressman who was one of the Ring of the silk smugglers, turned State's evidence to-day and detailed the mode of smuggling silks in barrels by officers of the National Steamship Co.'s ships, the part taken by the dock master, the expressmen and subpoenaes in landing and carting away and selling the silks without knowledge of the customs officers.

What the Appropriation Should Be.

He said the money spent for the transporting of the army during the labor riots last summer would increase the army to its required strength. Thirty million dollars in bulk should be appropriated for the army There are 10 000 postmasters and less than 20,000 soldiers.

FORTY FIETH CONGRESS—Special Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Nov 2

The reading of the journal was dispensed with The death of Senator Morton was announced by Senator McDonald and a resolution submitted by him providing for the appointment of six Senators to attend the funeral of the deceased was agreed to The Vice President will designate the committee hereafter The Senate then at 12 10 as a mark of respect to the deceased, adjourned until Tuesday next.

Subsequently the following Senators were appointed as the committee to attend the funeral McDonald of Ind Davis of Ill Burnside of R I Bayard of Del Don Cameron of Pa, Booth of Cal

House.

Mr Wood of N Y asked leave to offer a resolution requesting the President to communicate the correspondence with the Spanish Government and the orders and directions of the Treasury Department to the collectors of customs in relation to the recent imposition of the different rate of 50 cents per ton on Spanish vessels entering American ports

Mr Pelton objected

Mr Wood asked leave to offer a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish the House copies of contracts made with a certain syndicate of American and foreign bankers for the issue and sale of the 4 per cent bonds of the United States, together with copies of all other papers relating thereto and also with a statement as to the present position of said syndicate and whether it remains in force as originally made without modification or change

Mr Pridmore objected

Mr Wood also asked leave to offer a resolution calling on the Secretary of War for information in regard to the number of enlisted men and officers of the army now on duty in the District of Columbia, the name, rank and emolument of each duty to which each is assigned and the time he has been assigned thereto the number of contract surgeons now employed in the District of Columbia, the number of contract surgeons employed who are not graduates to be dealt with all information thereto

Mr Pridmore objected

Mr Atkins Chairman of the Appropriation Committee Reported the Army Appropriation bill which was referred to the Committee of the Whole and made a special order for Wednesday next

Mr Cox asked Mr Atkins if the Appropriation Committee had taken into consideration the subject of adjournment?

Mr Atkins replied Not in a formal manner

Mr Banning introduced a bill to fix the pay of letter carriers Referred

Mr Roberts from the Committee on Accounts reported a resolution authorizing clerks for committees which resolution after considerable discussion was adopted

The call of the committees having been concluded the Speaker stated that the Committee on Banking and Currency had the floor for the remainder of the morning hour

Mr Conger moved to go to Committee of the Whole on the private calendar

The Speaker declined to admit the motion to go into Committee of the Whole on the ground that there will be no bills on the private calendar and he added that the chair ought to exercise a little common sense in such matters

Mr Conger retorted that if the chair was making an effort in that direction he (Conger) was unwilling to interfere with him. (Laughter)

Mr Ewing—I now withdraw the motion to recommit the bill reported from the Committee on Banking and Currency I am instructed by the Committee for the purpose of giving that opportunity for debate and I remember about which the gentleman on both sides of the House seem so desirous to ask unanimous consent to withdraw the bill reported from the committee a bill that which was presented by the gentleman from Illinois (Forney) and that the said bill be made a special order for Tuesday the 13th inst and from day to day until disposed of with the understanding that two amendments may be offered before the previous question is demanded The committee conceives its bill is of precisely the same character as that proposed by the gentleman from Illinois

The Speaker inferred that it could not be done without unanimous consent Objection was made

Mr Hubbell of Michigan member of the Banking Committee) inquired of Ewing what two amendments would be in order to be offered

Mr Ewing replied any two amendments that would be agreed upon by the opponents of the bill

Mr Hubbell—Will you allow me to offer both the two?

Mr Ewing repeated his proposition and Hubbell asked that it be substituted be read but Ewing objected to any such reading

Mr Hubbell—I then object to your proposition

Mr Ewing—Very well—I now yield the floor to the gentleman from Illinois to offer his amendments

Mr Fort then proposed to read his amendments, as before printed

Mr Ewing moved the previous question on the bill and amendments

Mr Hale of Maine moved to lay them on the table The motion was defeated—yeas 99 nays 140

The Speaker then announced that the morning hour had expired

The House adjourned in respect of Senator Morton's death after the appointment of the following committee to attend his funeral Hannah and Cobb of Ind Wilson of West Virginia, Burchard of Ill Davidson of Fla Banks of Mass and Townsend of New York.

THE LATE SENATOR MORTON

Tokens of Respect

WASHINGTON Nov 2 The President issued directions at an early hour to-day that the flags on all the public buildings be half masted in respect to the memory of the late Senator Morton The Cabinet met at noon with all the members present and action will be taken to pay proper official honors to the deceased Senator

The Senate Committee on Elections met this morning and Acting Chairman Mitchell read a telegram from Gov Burbank announcing the death of Senator Morton—the Vice President appointed Senators McDonald Davis of Ill, Burnside, Bayard, Cameron and Booth as a committee to attend the funeral of Senator Morton at Indianapolis Monday

Mr Saulsbury moved that members of the Committee tender their condolence to the widow and family of their deceased chairman which was agreed to and the following telegram signed by the entire committee was immediately despatched

Mrs, Senator Morton and family, Indianapolis

Members of the Committee on Elections of the Senate have heard with sorrow of the death of Senator Morton, Chairman of said Committee, and beg to tender to Mrs Morton and her family their sincere condolence in this hour of trial and bereavement"

Mr Wadleigh moved the committee adjourn out of respect for the memory of the deceased Senator Agreed to

At an informal meeting of the committee subsequently it was agreed to meet on Wednesday next at which time it is understood they will endeavor to arrive at some conclusion as to what course to pursue on an investigation of the Louisiana case

The Meeting of Citizens

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov 2 The citizens' meeting convened at 9 A M, Mayor Caven presiding The Committee on Resolutions asked until to-morrow before reporting A general committee of arrangements of 25 members was appointed. Invitations to attend the funeral of Senator Morton were ordered to be issued to President Hayes and Cabinet, the Judges and officers of the Supreme Court, General Sherman and other army officers, and the Governors of the several States It was further recommended that the surviving soldiers of Indiana, independent military organizations of the State, and U S. soldiers within the State be also invited to attend the funeral, and that the soldiers' meeting about to be held here be requested to take charge of all arrangements therefor, and further recommended that the Masonic, Odd Fellows and other benevolent and voluntary organizations of the State, and the officers and students of the institutions of learning be invited to attend generally. Also all persons of the State not embraced in the enumeration be cordially invited to attend the ceremonies and follow to the grave the remains of their great fellow citizen, and the family of the deceased Senators are most respectfully requested to allow his remains to be deposited in state in the great hall of the Court House to remain under a guard of honor during such time as may be agreeable to them.

FORTY FIFTH CONGRESS—Special Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Nov 2

The reading of the journal was dispensed with The death of Senator Morton was announced by Senator McDonald and a resolution submitted by him providing for the appointment of six Senators to attend the funeral of the deceased was agreed to The Vice President will designate the committee hereafter The Senate then at 12 10 as a mark of respect to the deceased, adjourned until Tuesday next.

Subsequently the following Senators were appointed as the committee to attend the funeral McDonald of Ind Davis of Ill Burnside of R I Bayard of Del Don Cameron of Pa, Booth of Cal

House.

Mr Wood of N Y asked leave to offer a resolution requesting the President to communicate the correspondence with the Spanish Government and the orders and directions of the Treasury Department to the collectors of customs in relation to the recent imposition of the different rate of 50 cents per ton on Spanish vessels entering American ports

Mr Pelton objected

Mr Wood asked leave to offer a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish the House copies of contracts made with a certain syndicate of American and foreign bankers for the issue and sale of the 4 per cent bonds of the United States, together with copies of all other papers relating thereto and also with a statement as to the present position of said syndicate and whether it remains in force as originally made without modification or change

Mr Pridmore objected

Mr Wood also asked leave to offer a resolution calling on the Secretary of War for information in regard to the number of enlisted men and officers of the army now on duty in the District of Columbia, the name, rank and emolument of each duty to which each is assigned and the time he has been assigned thereto the number of contract surgeons now employed in the District of Columbia, the number of contract surgeons employed who are not graduates to be dealt with all information thereto

Mr Pridmore objected

Mr Atkins Chairman of the Appropriation Committee Reported the Army Appropriation bill which was referred to the Committee of the Whole and made a special order for Wednesday next

Mr Cox asked Mr Atkins if the Appropriation Committee had taken into consideration the subject of adjournment?

Mr Atkins replied Not in a formal manner

Mr Banning introduced a bill to fix the pay of letter carriers Referred

Mr Roberts from the Committee on Accounts reported a resolution authorizing clerks for committees which resolution after considerable discussion was adopted

The call of the committees having been concluded the Speaker stated that the Committee on Banking and Currency had the floor for the remainder of the morning hour

Mr Conger moved to go to Committee of the Whole on the private calendar

The Speaker declined to admit the motion to go into Committee of the Whole on the ground that there will be no bills on the private calendar and he added that the chair ought to exercise a little common sense in such matters

Mr Conger retorted that if the chair was making an effort in that direction he (Conger) was unwilling to interfere with him. (Laughter)

Mr Ewing—I now withdraw the motion to recommit the bill reported from the Committee on Banking and Currency I am instructed by the Committee for the purpose of giving that opportunity for debate and I remember about which the gentlemen on both sides of the House seem so desirous to ask unanimous consent to withdraw the bill reported from the committee a bill that which was presented by the gentleman from Illinois (Forney) and that the said bill be made a special order for Tuesday the 13th inst and from day to day until disposed of with the understanding that two amendments may be offered before the previous question is demanded The committee conceives its bill is of precisely the same character as that proposed by the gentleman from Illinois

The Speaker inferred that it could not be done without unanimous consent Objection was made

Mr Hubbell of Michigan member of the Banking Committee) inquired of Ewing what two amendments would be in order to be offered

Mr Ewing replied any two amendments that would be agreed upon by the opponents of the bill

Mr Hubbell—Will you allow me to offer both the two?

Mr Ewing repeated his proposition and Hubbell asked that it be substituted be read but Ewing objected to any such reading

Mr Hubbell—I then object to your proposition

Mr Ewing—Very well—I now yield the floor to the gentleman from Illinois to offer his amendments

Mr Fort then proposed to read his amendments, as before printed

Mr Ewing moved the previous question on the bill and amendments

Mr Hale of Maine moved to lay them on the table The motion was defeated—yeas 99 nays 140

The Speaker then announced that the morning hour had expired

The House adjourned in respect of Senator Morton's death after the appointment of the following committee to attend his funeral Hannah and Cobb of Ind Wilson of West Virginia, Burchard of Ill Davidson of Fla Banks of Mass and Townsend of New York.

THE LATE SENATOR MORTON

Tokens of Respect

WASHINGTON Nov 2 The President issued directions at an early hour to-day that the flags on all the public buildings be half masted in respect to the memory of the late Senator Morton The Cabinet met at noon with all the members present and action will be taken to pay proper official honors to the deceased Senator

The Senate Committee on Elections met this morning and Acting Chairman Mitchell read a telegram from Gov Burbank announcing the death of Senator Morton—the Vice President appointed Senators McDonald Davis of Ill, Burnside, Bayard, Cameron and Booth as a committee to attend the funeral of Senator Morton at Indianapolis Monday

Mr Saulsbury moved that members of the Committee tender their condolence to the widow and family of their deceased chairman which was agreed to and the following telegram signed by the entire committee was immediately despatched

Mrs, Senator Morton and family, Indianapolis

Members of the Committee on Elections of the Senate have heard with sorrow of the death of Senator Morton, Chairman of said Committee, and beg to tender to Mrs Morton and her family their sincere condolence in this hour of trial and bereavement"

Mr Wadleigh moved the committee adjourn out of respect for the memory of the deceased Senator Agreed to

At an informal meeting of the committee subsequently it was agreed to meet on Wednesday next at which time it is understood they will endeavor to arrive at some conclusion as to what course to pursue on an investigation of the Louisiana case

The Meeting of Citizens

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov 2 The citizens' meeting convened at 9 A M, Mayor Caven presiding The Committee on Resolutions asked until to-morrow before reporting A general committee of arrangements of 25 members was appointed. Invitations to attend the funeral of Senator Morton were ordered to be issued to President Hayes and Cabinet, the Judges and officers of the Supreme Court, General Sherman and other army officers, and the Governors of the several States It was further recommended that the surviving soldiers of Indiana, independent military organizations of the State, and U S. soldiers within the State be also invited to attend the funeral, and that the soldiers' meeting about to be held here be requested to take charge of all arrangements therefor, and further recommended that the Masonic, Odd Fellows and other benevolent and voluntary organizations of the State, and the officers and students of the institutions of learning be invited to attend generally. Also all persons of the State not embraced in the enumeration be cordially invited to attend

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, Nov 2 FLOUR unchd—sales 2,000—Superfine Western and State, 4 50 a 5 70 Extra Ohio, 5 45 a 7 20 White wheat western, 6 05 a 6 75 Southern 5 75 a 8 50

WHEAT is unch d—sales 251 000 bushels—No 2 Milwaukee, 1 28, winter red western, 1 35

CORN is lower—sales 167,000 bush—ungraded western mixed 61

OATS are dull—sales 41 000 bushels—Mixed Western and state, 39@43, white western and state, 51@53

Coffee is firm—Rio 16@21

SUGAR is lower—Fair to good Refining, 7@8 prime, 8¼ standard A, 9¼@9¾ granula ed, 10, powdered, 10¼ crushed 10¾

MOLASSES—Cuba, 31, refined, 48

RICE is quiet

SPIRITS TURPENTINE is dull

PORK—New mess 14 47

BEEF is quiet—New extra mess 13 00@13 00

LARD—Prime steam 8 55.

Chicago Produce Market

CHICAGO Nov Flour quiet.

Wheat active—No 3 109

CORN—No 2 43¾

OATS—No 2 at 25

BARLEY at 51

Rye steady at 53¾

LOCAL MATTERS.

Plenty of mud now days

Good weather for the rubber trade

Attention is called to Wood's advertisement

Major Bickford has just received a lot of fresh oysters

Mr Sands has assumed the duties of Superintendent of the Alms House

The steamer May Field will continue her regular trips up to the 15th of this month

Mr Forrest Howe will speak at the meeting of the Reform Club Sunday afternoon

The first social assembly of the season at Mose Hall takes place next Thursday evening

Prof Cyrus Hamlin D D of the Seminary preaches at the West Bangor Chapel Sunday

On account of the unfavorable weather Mr Howe did not speak at City Hall last evening

We are informed that Rev S P Fay will deliver a course of lectures on his travels this winter

Rev S P Fay will preach at the Home for Aged Women to morrow afternoon at four o clock

Rev C H Allen of the State College will supply the Union street Methodist pulpit to-morrow

Some of the ladies of the Bangor Tuesday Club are talking of presenting the play entitled Ten Nights in a Bar Room

Yesterday morning a horse owned by Capt. James Woodbury ran away on Exchange street and was captured on Central street after having demolished the carriage

Last evening at about seven o clock an alarm of fire was sounded and the department turned out and went up State street for some distance but they were unable to find any fire

The interest at Garland Five Corners in the inhabitants of that village to the importance of having a fire engine and quite a sum of money has been raised by subscription for that purpose

Our correspondent writes Mrs De Loral Crockett of Howland died very suddenly of heart disease last Thursday She complained of being in considerable distress and only lived one hour after the first attack

Yesterday those passing that way took notice that the electric saw was a sign reading Dangerous—drive carefully and after driving over the road they were fully convinced that there was need of the sign on the road

A man named George Carlisle dropped dead in the woods near Houlton Thursday His body was discovered and the corpse was taken to that place yesterday morning A telegram announcing the intelligence was received by Sheriff Walker Esq with whom the friends of the deceased can confer

Rev George I Carlton of Newton Mass. will supply the pulpit of the Columbia street Baptist church to-morrow preaching in the forenoon and afternoon and the public are cordially invited He is expected to labor in this city and vicinity for some months and will preach at the above church most of the time

A correspondent writes A remarkable reformation is now in progress at Pittsdamont under the labors of Rev G W Riley Meetings are held every afternoon and evening, and the large house is crowded full About sixty have already started in the new life The interest is deep but the services free from excitement

A VIGILANT VICTIMIZED The legislature of Leonard Cordage of Blue Hill, went to Boston Wednesday to transact some business While on Atlantic avenue he was approached by a fellow with the most gentlemanly manner imaginable who made his acquaintance After talking some time he asked Mr Cordage to oblige him by giving him $60 in bills in exchange for the same amount in gold His request was complied with It is need less to say that the gold turned out to be very poor brass

Boys Club The Unity Club proposes to devote its rooms on Saturday evenings to the amusement and instruction of boys with the view of establishing ultimately a place where boys, who would otherwise spend their evenings on the streets may be surrounded by wholesome and elevating influences This evening has been designated for the beginning of the experiment which has elsewhere succeeded admirably Contributions of pictorial newspapers the St. Nicholas or other suitable magazines, and parlor games of various kinds if sent to the hall during the afternoon will be gratefully received

ANOTHER DISAPPOINTMENT Yesterday afternoon teams of various description were seen leaving the city for the Trotting Park and at an early hour there was a large crowd anxiously waiting to witness the race between Billy Platter and Anodyne But they were again doomed to disappointment, for at half past one o'clock rain began falling, and in a few minutes the track was in such a condition that it was impossible to start the horses, and after some consultation it was decided to postpone the race until next Wednesday In the 2 33 class Triumph, Ione, Glory Queen and another horse were on the ground ready to start

G A R. ASSEMBLIES The first assembly in this course takes place at City Hall next Monday evening We learn that the committee have been very successful in disposing of tickets, and the indication are that the course will prove all that could be desired, Mr McQuown has arranged a medley quadrille which he has dedicated to Post 12 It presents in selections from old songs, reminiscences of the war. The first number comprises, "The girl I left behind me," and "March right down to Washington." The second number introduces the "Mocking bird," "Just before the battle, mother" and "Glory hallelujah" The third number representing an engagement, introduces mingled strains of "Yankee Doodle" and "Dixie," followed by "Rally round the flag" and "The vacant chair" The fourth number recalls camp-life, and the close of the war by "Kingdom coming," Marching through Georgia, Tenting on the old camp-ground, Star Spangled Banner" and "Johnny comes marching home" It will undoubtedly be very popular with the Grand Army boys, who fully appreciate this compliment from Mr. McQuown. The order of dances will present several new features being of a military character The contras and quadrilles will be formed at the bugle call of the "assembly," and the waltzes at the call of "to arms" The "Dinner Call" announces intermission, after which the round dances will be announced by the "Fatigue Call" The last quadrille will be formed at the sound of Tattoo" after which the bugle will sound "Taps" for lights out

THE WEATHER. Following is a summary of the weather for the month of October at the Signal Office in Bangor Clear days, 5 fair days, 7, cloudy days 13, rainy days 4 snowy days 1, number of days on which rain fell 11 snow, 2—first of the season on the 22d—sleet, 2, prevailing direction of wind for the month north west number of times rain accompanied winds blowing from the north 0; south 2; east 3 west 1, northwest 0, southwest 0 to the east 1 southeast 1 snow with winds from the north 1 northeast, 1; sleet with winds from the north 1 east, 1 north 1 numbers of auroras 1, solar halos, 2 lunar coronas 1, number of days on which fog was observed 3 frost 1—first of the season on the 6th—very severe on the 21st and 27th

NOMINATIONS TO THE GOVERNOR The following nominations were made by the Governor Wednesday, to be acted upon by the Council at their next session for commencing November 6—

Jason W Beatty Saco Trustee of Reform School A J Billings Freedom Inspector of Prisons and Jails

J W Spalding Richmond Trustee of Military and Naval Orphan Asylum Bath

William P Wingate Bangor, Trustee of State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts

Henry Carmichael, Brunswick State Assayer

William A Pike, Orono, Commissioner to verify certificate in Aroostook County

Miss C E Angell, Pittsfield, to solemnize marriages

Charles R Mallard Rockland Coroner

Commissioner of Knox County

Walter H White Lewiston J P and Q U

Jonathan Bridgton

Josiah H Drummond Jr Portland,

William Henry Clifford Portland

William Allen, Jr, Portland

John Rand Portland

Loring Farr Augusta

Ruth K Dunbar Wood tick

Isaac Foster, Arcola

Augustus N Larkin Lincolnville

Charles E White Topsham,

William H Hogan, Bath,

Rufus Robertson, St Albans

R F Dunton, Belfast,

Samuel Fletcher Belmont

F O L Hobson Saco

Geo D Bisbee Buckfield Notary Public

Seth W Fife Fryeburg

Enoch Foster, Jr Bethel

Stephen Cobb Chelsea Trial Justice

Edwin M Allen Jackson Brook

Seward Dill Phillips Coroner

Hilbert Bray South Deer Isle Inspector of Pork

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

OCTOBER CIVIL TERM

HON JOHN A PETERS Justice Presiding

JAMES H BURGESS Clerk

RUFUS SMITH Stenographer

Friday Nov

ON TRIAL

Same as reported yesterday

Police Court

In the police court yesterday John Gillon was fined for drunkenness and sentenced to the county prison

Thos Dolan was sent up to jail for thirty days on a suspended sentence

The Weather

An abstract of the Meteorological Observation taken at the State College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts for the month of October 1877 by Prof M C Fernald

Lat 44° 54' 30" N Long 68° 45' W Altitude above the sea, 134 feet

	1877	18
Mean temperature	47 01	45
Max mum temperature	74	6
Mi mum	14
Mean of warmest day (1st)	61 8	(9th) 5
Mean of coldest day	(9th) 30	(17th) 3
Mean perce tage of cloud ness	50	49
Number of rainy days	11
Inches of rain and melted snow in gauge	4 75	3
Inches of snow	6 1	4
Mean height of barometer (in)	29
Maximum	(1st) 29 403	(9th) 29
Minimum	(9th) 29 449	(17th) 29
Mean force of vapor in inches	256
Mean humidity of the atmosphere	78

NEWSPAPER AND JOB PRINTING

Business Items

ANDREWS BAZAR gives the following valuable hints to hotel keepers and liquor dealers are priceless Some of the cleverest authorities on cuisinare, among them Madame de Courcell of Paris, contribute Fashion plates full description of fashion society news and varied literary contents make this magazine one of the best in the land, Ladies can do nothing wiser than to subscribe for it W R Andrews Publisher Cincinnati, Ohio

FREE OF CHARGE—Sample bottle of Hanson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases Large bottles 35 cents

SENSIBLE ADVICE You are asked every day throughout the columns of newspapers and by your Druggist to use something for your Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint that you know nothing about You get discouraged spending money with but little success Now to give you satisfactory proof that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER will cure you of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint with all its effects, such as sour stomach Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness palpitation of the Heart, Heartburn Water brash, Fullness of the pit of the Stomach Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue, Indigestion as coming of the head low spirits &c., we ask you to go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you For sale by all druggists lyd&wod10

IT HAS STOOD THE TEST

If you doubt the wonderful success of SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE give it a trial, then if you are not perfectly satisfied return the Bottle and we will refund the price paid It has established the fact that Consumption can be cured, while for Coughs, Hoarseness, Asthma, Whooping Cough, and all Lung or Throat troubles there is no thing like it for a quick and positive cure, as 16 never fails 10 cents, 50 cents and $1 00 per bottle If your Lungs are sore or Chest or Back lame use SHILOH'S POROUS PLASTER, price 25 cents, Sold by N S Harlow and H H Buker, Bangor

HACKMETACK, a rich and fragrant perfume Sold by the above dealers oct1 eodd&wdm

KIDNEY DISEASES, DROPSY, and all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, are cured by HUNT'S REMEDY. Hundreds who have been given up by their Physicians to die have been cured by HUNT'S REMEDY. All Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs, are cured by HUNT'S REMEDY.

CLARKE'S TOBIN Acts Doors carry it easily. june12—1y.

Lame and sick horses, pronounced incurable, cured free of cost Glick Liniment Iodide Ammonia.

Spavins, Splints, Ringbones, Bunches Thoroughpins, Spring Hocks cured with out blemish

Strains, Shoulder Lameness, Navicular Disease, Shoe Bolls cured guaranteed Send for pamphlet containing full information to Dr Wm M GILES, 431 6th Avenue, New York

Use only for HORSES the liniment in YELLOW wrappers oct1 eod&wsm*

Marine Journal.

PORT OF BANGOR.

FRIDAY, Oct 26.

ARRIVED

Sch Jeanie Ella Stone New York

Brig Palmer Boston

Sch Jed Frye

Sch John Exter Boston

Sch R H Cobb Clay Boston

Sch May Flower Bassett, Boston

Sch Judge Tenney, Rich Boston

Sch G M Porter

Sch F Kimball Webber Boston

Sch Jessie and William, Varnum, Salem

Sch Quinnimagog, Meservey, Penobscot

Sch Emily Williams, Rich Rockland

Sch Centennial, Blodgett, Boston

Sch Light wood Burton

Sch E B Wilson, Sale

CLEARED

Sch H K Arey Bunker, Frost Gardiner

Sch Ida Alden Rockland

Sch M H C Frank West Haven

DOMESTIC PORTS

BOSTON Ar 31st, sch Mary Goodell Bangor, Sch Lizzie Slaven Gloucester

Sch Elizabeth Sleeper Rockland, Sch Carrie Buckley Swift Ocean Wave

Sch Wm Hanson Rockland

PROVINCETOWN Sld 30th schrs Wm Ann Dubois, Barnum Bangor, no beans Sam Hess Rockland

PORTSMOUTH Ar 31st, schr Building on Lee Hanson Bangor for Boston

NEW YORK Ar 31st, schrs Frank W Emery Eastport, Progress, Arcola Grace Slocum Gloucester Arctic Forester Saunders Calais, Clara Bow Belcher Rockland, Rockland Packet Carroll Rockland, Hix Hix Mary Dolan Clark, Mathias Whitney Hancock, Providence Condition Johnson Rockland, Jacket, Kendall Rockland, Carroll

THREE MONTHS AFTER DATE

(Concluded.)

Rose listened at the door. "I think it is only Robert listening to the doors. What I was going to say was, I do not think he is mean at all. I think he is only determined not to be cheated, and—and—businesslike."

"Then he is the first of his family that ever was. Sir Francis Bigsby was businesslike, but then he was brought up to it. Arthur's father had not the remotest conception of it."

"Then I think he is very unlike his father."

"From what little he vouchsafed to tell us, it is pretty plain that he has not carried on a very profitable business abroad, Rose; and I believe, as soon as he has settled what there is to settle of his father's affairs, he will be off back again. And," said her ladyship, with severity, "as soon as he is gone I'll give the monkey to the first organ man I meet who will take it. And now, child, it is time we left off talking, though I am sure I shan't close my eyes, with boa-constrictors in the kitchen, a monkey in an adjoining room, and the prospect of an armadillo, a mongoose, and a negro to-morrow. I should like to know who could?"

"I think I can, aunt," said Rose, laughing. "Good night." And she tripped lightly to her own room, where she thought over all the wonders of the evening.

* * * * * * *

June. It was the lovely month of roses, the trees, hedges, and greenswards of Clapham Park were their most beautiful aspect, the gardens were bright with flowers, the nightingale sang in the groves. It is evening, twilight is softening into darkness, soon to be lighted by many peeping stars and crescent moon. Two figures sit. Eager on the lawn at The Limes, seated one at either end of a rustic seat—Arthur Farquhar and Rose Maxwell. For the butterfly hunter has not gone away yet from his step-mother's house, though he has often talked of taking a run on the Continent, getting something to do, and so on. He is perfectly at home. Rose is very constantly, and lives in society, and Lady Bigsby is most amiable. Charro is the pet of the establishment, being a monkey of the most uncommon talents.

The snakes did it, backed by the armadillo. Farquhar sent them to the Zoo, together with some humming birds he had preserved, sundry reptiles in spirits, some butterflies and beetles, and all were new. The society was charmed, and gave him a déjeûner to help him in dissecting the objects he had presented. The doings of the evening were reported in the papers, Farquhar was invited to parties, dinners, and evenings—"West," as Lady Bigsby observed, sighing as she reflected on the glories of Sir Francis' year of lord mayoralty. She found all sorts of good in her stepson, and petted Pizarro. The nigger signed out to be an unobjectionable person, quite white, and an excellent cook and valet, but he was sent home to his friends at once, as Farquhar said he did not want any servant.

Of course you see why the naturalist had stayed on at the Limes. He was over head and ears in love with Rose Maxwell, and still in doubt whether she cared a row of pins for him, except in a cousinly way; added to which there was another young fellow hanging after her, who though he had not Farquhar's opportunities, had the advantage of long prior right.

Lady Bigsby was receiving a few friends in a quiet way. The rooms were hot, and several of the guests had strolled round the grounds, enjoying the cool evening breeze. All had returned to the drawing-room, except Rose and Arthur. They sat on the terrace, with their backs to the French windows opening upon it. They could hear the buzz of conversation and the music to rather better advantage than if they had been in the room.

Two young ladies sang a duet; then, after a pause, a male voice was heard singing melodiously a pretty song—a love-song—meant to catch the ear of Rose.

"That is Charles Smith," she said. "I like his singing. He and we might better go in."

"No, Rose, let us sit here. In the first place it is not cold, and you know it is not, in the second, I don't want to hear that fellow sing. I can hear him here. Rose, if I were in that room and saw him singing that stuff at you, I should—I should pitch him out of the window."

Arthur!" said Rose, astonished, for tragedy astonishment, for I think this young lady was not behind the rest of her sex in discovering the state of an honest man's heart.

"Rose," said her lover, drawing close up to her, while she turned her head from him, "I can bear this suspense no longer. I love you—as man never loved a woman before. I live for you, I would die for you. I won't be silent about the basis. I am eleven years older than you are. Can you love me? Will you marry me?"

She sat with her head drooped, her back turned toward him, neither moving nor speaking.

"I am a rash, heedless, perhaps, man, but I did have been if I had stayed at home, but not worse. Rose—not worse, and I will make you happy, and I shall be the happiest man alive. Say you will like me."

But she sat silent.

When I came back to England I never thought of marrying, but your beauty, your gentleness, have made me love you—so well. Say yes, Rose."

And she said "Yes" very softly, with her beautiful face covered in sudden modesty.

He clasped her in his arms, and imprinted manly kisses on her fair brow and cheek.

"I do love you, Arthur," she said, tenderly, "but Aunt Bigsby has made me promise her I would never marry without her permission. I am afraid she will never give it to my marrying you. She has told me never to encourage you in the least—"

"The—devil she has."

"And I shall never be happy again," Her head fell upon his broad chest, tears falling fast.

"Now then you people—Arthur, Rose!" It was Mr. Bigsby at the French window, tapping the shade with her fan to call their attention. "We are going to supper."

Supper! Love wants no supper, though the Bigsby does.

"Come, Arthur," she says.

She is in the light, and they can see her distinctly. They are in the almost darkness of the summer evening, and she can only see they are sitting together.

"We will troll once more round the grand walk by the roses, and then join you."

And at supper, Rose is pale but radiant, without any trace of tears.

Farquhar, as you have already discovered, is a determined fellow, and means to secure Lady Bigsby's consent without a day's delay. Smith, the pretendant to Rose's hand—with the prior claim, however—and one or two other people loiter about after supper, until the evening has got so late, when Lady Big-by, Rose, and he are left together, that he considers it is best to put the matter off till the morning.

Rose blushes a heavenly pink when they meet at the breakfast table, as her eye rests on his. Lady Bigsby is rather late, giving the lovers time for an opportune tete-a-tete. When she makes her appearance she is not in her best temper; she has in her hand a large blue envelope, which is presumably the cause of her annoyance.

The high spirits of the other two, however, soon revive her, and breakfast goes off smoothly and even pleasantly, with a fair mixture in the conversation of good-humored banter about the people at the party the night before. The only remark that gives trouble to Rose and makes her blush crimson is when Lady Bigsby says:

"You were very nonchalant in your behavior to Mr. Smith last night, Rose. You must be very civil to him when you meet him to-morrow, and wipe out the remembrance of an unpleasant impression."

"You know, Arthur," said her ladyship, playfully tapping his arm with her fat white hand, "I have made up my mind to marry these two eligible parties. The Smiths are rich, Rose is poor; they are very nice people. You need not blush, my dear. I am sure that young fellow is on the eve of popping the question. I expect it every time he comes."

During this speech, a penny's worth of pale color compared with Rose's tell-tale cheek. Arthur simply dropped his eyelids after his own manner and wrinkled his forehead, at the same time giving Rose's foot a gentle pressure, intended to be reassuring and to mean, "I will make this right directly. You will see."

They were leaving the room together, when Lady Bigsby stopped him.

"You go, Rose," she said; "I want to speak to Arthur."

"I was just going to say I wished to have a word or two with you, Lady Bigsby."

"Come then, you people."

"Ladies first."

"Well; I was going to ask your advice, Arthur, and I hope you will oblige me by attending to what I am saying, and not sit as you sometimes do, when I seem to talk, staring into vacancy and thinking of something else all the while."

"I promise you my best attention," Arthur replied.

"Then I will promise by saying that the late Sir Francis did not behave well to me as he should have done. There was very little of his property settled on me, for, as I had no money of my own, my poor father at the time felt that the matter ought to be left to Sir Francis entirely. This was done, to my great regret afterwards, but I was too young and inexperienced then to know anything about it."

Arthur bowed, and Lady Bigsby proceeded.

"I took care when I married my niece from this house, that everything that was handsome was done. I shall take the same care in Rose's case. People say married and settled; I say settled, then married. If my own income were twice as large, I should not have a penny more than I could spend, living in the most careful way. It is true I have this house rent-free for my life, but I have come to the conclusion that, now your father's income has become yours, I must leave off keeping a carriage. It's very hard after so many years!"

"Very hard," said Arthur.

"Well, now comes the tug of war," said her ladyship; "I have very rarely been fool enough to lend any money."

"I can quite believe it."

"Yes; but some time ago, under circumstances of a very peculiar kind, I lent an old friend, not money exactly, that was not asked, but my name which had been asked for."

"You put your name on the back of a bill?"

"On the front. I am the acceptor. I am quite familiar with all these terms, and the routine of business. I used to help Sir Francis so much after he had his first stroke, and while he was able to attend at all to his affairs."

"A lady or a gentleman?"

"A lady—an old schoolfellow who had claims on me I could not resist very well."

"You will have to provide the money to meet it, I suppose."

"That is the tug of war I spoke of. I haven't got the money, Arthur."

"How much is it?"

"Six hundred pounds."

"Phe-w-w, Lady Bigsby, I expect the promptings of a generous heart, but be whipped if I thought you were a woman to have done it."

"I am not so bored as you think me," said her ladyship, graciously placing her hand on his shoulder. "Now advise me, Arthur—what is to be done? I only want your advice—I know out of your income you can't help me with the money. I spoke to my lawyer yesterday, and he said he hardly saw his way, want to lend me the money. I may tell you that the document bearing my name was given to a man to whom my friend was indebted for the sum it represented. She has got a friend who would endorse a new note at three months, and with two names, the man would renew it for three months, adding on the interest, which I think might be paid for this accommodation."

Arthur Farquhar sat pulling his long beard, without replying to the observation.

"Arthur," said Lady Bigsby, in her sweetest tones, "I was—going—to—ask—you."

He looked up, and was about to speak, when Lady Bigsby interrupted.

"There, there; don't begin to tell me you never did such a thing! In your strong objections to put your name on stamped paper—could not possibly meet it—render yourself Fabb, &c., &c. My dear Arthur, there is really not the least risk in the world, as I know my friend will have the money ready long before the acceptance becomes due; and if there is no real cause about it now, she is a ruined woman. You were going to say you wouldn't, I know you were; but do say yes, and oblige me forever."

Lady Bigsby, if you had permitted me, I was going to say I should do it with all the pleasure in the world."

"Arthur," I say his hard, "how kind of you!"

"Don't say a word more about it. After the great kindness I have received from you and from Rose, once I have been back in England, the obligation will be mutual with me."

"If we have made your comfortable, we are delighted. I am so much obliged to you, you have helped me out of a great difficulty. There," said her lady-ship, letting a pen and ink from the room, "you shall write your own note here now, and the thing will be done, and I will be so glad at once."

In half a minute "Arthur Farquhar" was scrawled across the back, and indorsed in pencil to Lady Bigsby" appeared in the next moment in the hand of the writer had learned at school—angular, with very sharp cross's and dots, such as young ladies were taught to make shortly after.

Having carefully blotted the signatures, Lady Bigsby rang the bell, and handing the letter to the maid who answered the summons, said, "Give that to Robert to post—tell him to take it at once."

"Now I shall ask you to give me a minute or two," said Arthur, rising and walking with his back to the empty fireplace.

"Lady Bigsby, I am going to ask your opinion, advice, and may say help, your consent, to a step I think of taking which will have an important effect upon my life after I have taken it."

"It is anything chiefly about business or copying your time, I shall say yes at once, Arthur; you are not in that way in the least like your poor father, for I can never have real aptitude for business."

"You think I have, Lady Bigsby?"

"I do. And if I were you I would not leave England again. Stay here and let me hunt up somebody who can give you something suitable, no doubt, though without capital it is always difficult to start to advantage here or elsewhere, but I suppose anywhere else."

"I was about to speak on that subject, my dear lady. It is a matter of that kind of old enough and sufficiently experienced to need for myself."

"Oh! I thought you said it was something of importance you wanted my advice about, Arthur?"

"Quite so. I do."

"Well, I am all attention. I beg your pardon for having misunderstood your meaning and wasted your time."

"I am thinking, Lady Bigsby, of getting married."

"Married!" screamed her ladyship. "Married! Arthur, why, who in the world do I know, I've went on with her volubility, "to the girl you left behind you and have been carrying on a correspondence with ever since you have been with us, and never told us a word about. Rose will be surprised, upon my word. I really must tell her. It is secret! I can't keep for the life of me."

"Rose knows all about it," said Farquhar quietly.

"Rose knows; dear me, you have made her your confident, and not me, eh, Master Arthur?"

"I had a reason for communicating my intention to Rose first, Lady Bigsby."

"Oh! no doubt, ha, ha! Well, come tell me am I right; is it a rich, young, and beautiful planter's daughter? Who is it? Is Juan dying to hear?"

"Rose—Miss Maxwell."

"Rose!" screamed the aunt, jumping up and taking her hand near the door; "I am dumbfounded." The was purely a figure of speech; "I would not have had such a thing happen for the world. Rose!"

"No, Lady Bigsby!" coldly closing his eyelids and wrinkling his brow.

"I mean Rose to have young Smith. He must be very civil to him when you meet him to-morrow, and wipe out the remembrance of an unpleasant impression."

"You know, Arthur," said her ladyship, playfully tapping his arm with her fat white hand, "I have made up my mind to marry these two eligible parties. The Smiths are rich, Rose is poor; they are very nice people. You need not blush, my dear. I am sure that young fellow is on the eve of popping the question. I expect it every time he comes."

During this speech, a penny's worth of pale color compared with Rose's tell-tale cheek. Arthur simply dropped his eyelids after his own manner and wrinkled his forehead, at the same time giving Rose's foot a gentle pressure, intended to be reassuring and to mean, "I will make this right directly. You will see."

They were leaving the room together, when Lady Bigsby stopped him.

"You go, Rose," she said; "I want to speak to Arthur."

"I was just going to say I wished to have a word or two with you, Lady Bigsby."

"Come then, you people."

"Ladies first."

"Well; I was going to ask your advice, Arthur, and I hope you will oblige me by attending to what I am saying, and not sit as you sometimes do, when I seem to talk, staring into vacancy and thinking of something else all the while."

"I promise you my best attention," Arthur replied.

"Then I will promise by saying that the late Sir Francis did not behave well to me as he should have done. There was very little of his property settled on me, for, as I had no money of my own, my poor father at the time felt that the matter ought to be left to Sir Francis entirely. This was done, to my great regret afterwards, but I was too young and inexperienced then to know anything about it."

Arthur bowed, and Lady Bigsby proceeded.

"I took care when I married my niece from this house, that everything that was handsome was done. I shall take the same care in Rose's case. People say married and settled; I say settled, then married. If my own income were twice as large, I should not have a penny more than I could spend, living in the most careful way. It is true I have this house rent-free for my life, but I have come to the conclusion that, now your father's income has become yours, I must leave off keeping a carriage. It's very hard after so many years!"

"Very hard," said Arthur.

"Well, now comes the tug of war," said her ladyship; "I have very rarely been fool enough to lend any money."

"I can quite believe it."

"Yes; but some time ago, under circumstances of a very peculiar kind, I lent an old friend, not money exactly, that was not asked, but my name which had been asked for."

"You put your name on the back of a bill?"

"On the front. I am the acceptor. I am quite familiar with all these terms, and the routine of business. I used to help Sir Francis so much after he had his first stroke, and while he was able to attend at all to his affairs."

"A lady or a gentleman?"

"A lady—an old schoolfellow who had claims on me I could not resist very well."

"You will have to provide the money to meet it, I suppose."

"That is the tug of war I spoke of. I haven't got the money, Arthur."

"How much is it?"

"Six hundred pounds."

"Phe-w-w, Lady Bigsby, I respect the promptings of a generous heart, but be whipped if I thought you were a woman to have done it."

"I am not so bored as you think me," said her ladyship, graciously placing her hand on his shoulder. "Now advise me, Arthur—what is to be done? I only want your advice—I know out of your income you can't help me with the money. I spoke to my lawyer yesterday, and he said he hardly saw his way, want to lend me the money. I may tell you that the document bearing my name was given to a man to whom my friend was indebted for the sum it represented. She has got a friend who would endorse a new note at three months, and with two names, the man would renew it for three months, adding on the interest, which I think might be paid for this accommodation."

Arthur Farquhar sat pulling his long beard, without replying to the observation.

"Arthur," said Lady Bigsby, in her sweetest tones, "I was—going—to—ask—you."

He looked up, and was about to speak, when Lady Bigsby interrupted.

"There, there; don't begin to tell me you never did such a thing! In your strong objections to put your name on stamped paper—could not possibly meet it—render yourself Fabb, &c., &c. My dear Arthur, there is really not the least risk in the world, as I know my friend will have the money ready long before the acceptance becomes due; and if there is no real cause about it now, she is a ruined woman. You were going to say you wouldn't, I know you were; but do say yes, and oblige me forever."

Lady Bigsby, if you had permitted me, I was going to say I should do it with all the pleasure in the world."

"Arthur," I say his hard, "how kind of you!"

"Don't say a word more about it. After the great kindness I have received from you and from Rose, once I have been back in England, the obligation will be mutual with me."

"If we have made your comfortable, we are delighted. I am so much obliged to you, you have helped me out of a great difficulty. There," said her lady-ship, letting a pen and ink from the room, "you shall write your own note here now, and the thing will be done, and I will be so glad at once."

In half a minute "Arthur Farquhar" was scrawled across the back, and indorsed in pencil to Lady Bigsby" appeared in the next moment in the hand of the writer had learned at school—angular, with very sharp cross's and dots, such as young ladies were taught to make shortly after.

Having carefully blotted the signatures, Lady Bigsby rang the bell, and handing the letter to the maid who answered the summons, said, "Give that to Robert to post—tell him to take it at once."

"Now I shall ask you to give me a minute or two," said Arthur, rising and walking with his back to the empty fireplace.

"Lady Bigsby, I am going to ask your opinion, advice, and may say help, your consent, to a step I think of taking which will have an important effect upon my life after I have taken it."

"It is anything chiefly about business or copying your time, I shall say yes at once, Arthur; you are not in that way in the least like your poor father, for I can never have real aptitude for business."

"You think I have, Lady Bigsby?"

"I do. And if I were you I would not leave England again. Stay here and let me hunt up somebody who can give you something suitable, no doubt, though without capital it is always difficult to start to advantage here or elsewhere, but I suppose anywhere else."

"I was about to speak on that subject, my dear lady. It is a matter of that kind of old enough and sufficiently experienced to need for myself."

"Oh! I thought you said it was something of importance you wanted my advice about, Arthur?"

"Quite so. I do."

"Well, I am all attention. I beg your pardon for having misunderstood your meaning and wasted your time."

"I am thinking, Lady Bigsby, of getting married."

"Married!" screamed her ladyship. "Married! Arthur, why, who in the world do I know, I've went on with her volubility, "to the girl you left behind you and have been carrying on a correspondence with ever since you have been with us, and never told us a word about. Rose will be surprised, upon my word. I really must tell her. It is secret! I can't keep for the life of me."

"Rose knows all about it," said Farquhar quietly.

"Rose knows; dear me, you have made her your confident, and not me, eh, Master Arthur?"

"I had a reason for communicating my intention to Rose first, Lady Bigsby."

"Oh! no doubt, ha, ha! Well, come tell me am I right; is it a rich, young, and beautiful planter's daughter? Who is it? Is Juan dying to hear?"

"Rose—Miss Maxwell."

"Rose!" screamed the aunt, jumping up and taking her hand near the door; "I am dumbfounded." The was purely a figure of speech; "I would not have had such a thing happen for the world. Rose!"

"No, Lady Bigsby!" coldly closing his eyelids and wrinkling his brow.

"I mean Rose to have young Smith. He must be very civil to him when you meet him to-morrow, and wipe out the remembrance of an unpleasant impression."

"You know, Arthur," said her ladyship, playfully tapping his arm with her fat white hand, "I have made up my mind to marry these two eligible parties. The Smiths are rich, Rose is poor; they are very nice people. You need not blush, my dear. I am sure that young fellow is on the eve of popping the question. I expect it every time he comes."

During this speech, a penny's worth of pale color compared with Rose's tell-tale cheek. Arthur simply dropped his eyelids after his own manner and wrinkled his forehead, at the same time giving Rose's foot a gentle pressure, intended to be reassuring and to mean, "I will make this right directly. You will see."

They were leaving the room together, when Lady Bigsby stopped him.

"You go, Rose," she said; "I want to speak to Arthur."

"I was just going to say I wished to have a word or two with you, Lady Bigsby."

"Come then, you people."

"Ladies first."

"Well; I was going to ask your advice,

"Not till I have called Rose in and placed her face to face with you, and asked her what she means."

The door opened, and in walked Rose.

"What is all this, Rose?"

"I love him, aunt."

"But you shall never marry him if I can stop it, Arthur, you will go, Rose, you will forget him."

"Never, aunt."

"I will get that document back to-morrow, Arthur. I am dreadfully sorry I ever sent it to the last."

"I will not stay now. I will send for my traps. Rose, you will not forget me, or love me less, if I go away for a short time?"

"Oh, don't go, Arthur; aunt will forgive me."

"Never!" said the worldly one, inexorably, "but I will try to bring you to your senses."

"Good-by, Rose," said Farquhar. "Good-by, Lady Bigsby. I will come back, surely."

"When, Arthur, when," cried Rose, all tears, and looking supremely lovely through her grief, "when shall we see you again?"

"Three months after date."

Which reply almost gave Lady Bigsby a fit.

He kissed Rose, and bowing stiffly to her ladyship, he crossed the hall, slammed the door after him, and was gone.

* * * * * * *

September. "Properly. I had no idea we had any property to look after," said her ladyship, after Arthur's first letter to Rose arrived. "I did not give a Farquhar credit for having done any good for himself."

The three months passed slowly by on leaden wings for Rose, but a long letter every mail from Arthur did much to cheer her, and reconcile her to his absence. Having had much experience of her aunt's character, and really loving her, she listened without comment to the sermons delivered by the subject of paper marriages, but secretly made up her mind to take Arthur for better or for worse, when he came back to claim her, with her Aunt's consent if she could get it; without, if she could not.

During the last two or three weeks before Arthur's return, Lady Bigsby fidgeted about the acceptance, which I need hardly say Farquhar paid.

"I hope you are not angry with me?" said her ladyship.

"Not the least, my dear lady, it is not the smallest inconvenience to me."

"And you are quite rich. Dear me, wonders never cease. If I were younger I would go out, butterfly hunting, and silver pro-pecting, and so on, myself. You will make him a good wife, Rose, he is just the man I always pictured you would have. I am not sorry to leave The Limes for a smaller house in the neighborhood, and I promise you I shall very often come to see you."

"You can't come too often, dear aunt, after we come back," said Rose.

"And about when do you think that will be?"

"When will it be, Arthur?"

"Well, dearest, let us say three months after date."

THE JUDGE AND THE WITNESS

It is very seldom that Judge Walton falls to accomplish anything that he puts forth an effort, but a short time since, during a session of the Supreme Judicial Court for civil and criminal actions, in Oxford county he met his match—or he found the stick that would not be split.

The action tried was about a bill of sale of a certain lame horse, which had not been given and it became necessary to show what verbal promises or assurances the defendant had given to the plaintiff touching the sale of the beast. Defendant declares in court that he never agreed to sell the horse for three thousand dollars. Plaintiff declares that he really bought the horse. It was understood when he took him home, the sum he did not pay any money down. There had been a slight lameness of the animal, and the plaintiff must satisfy himself that it was not a permanent injury before he paid his money. He had taken the horse home; cured the slight lameness; and, under his hand, the young horse had developed a speed that was marvellous. Defendant had heard of this speed, did not having yet received any pay for the first beast, he went to his neighbor's stable when neighbor was away, and carried the horse home as his own property.

Later, Spankman was called by the plaintiff to recount what he had heard defendant say about selling the horse. He had a disposition to ramble. He wanted to give the conversation about the horse as he had understood it—to give the impression which that conversation had fixed in his mind.

"Stop, stop," cried the judge. "This will not do. Look ye, Mr. Spankman, we want you to give us the exact words which the defendant used on that occasion. It is not for you to say what he meant, but only what he said. We can judge what he meant. Do you not remember his words?"

"Yes, sir," said Spankman, with a bow, a thing I do.

"Then you will repeat them to us—repeat them as nearly as they were spoken as you can?"

"Well, your honor, Mr. Jones had come to see if he could make a bargain for Nat-urb's Brandy colt. Jones had outlined a little lameness in the off hind leg, and he said he could be sure that was only temporary. He would give three thousand dollars for the colt; and as he was a capital good horse dealer, he wanted to take the animal home and attend to that leg, and if he could cure it he would pay the three thousand dollars."

"Yes—and how will you tell us just the words with which Mr Nutter answered?"

"Well, your honor, Mr. Nutter said he didn't care—"

"Stop, witness. You do not fully understand. I want the exact words which were spoken. Mr. Nutter would not have said what he would, or would not do. Did he say, 'I will do so and so?' He must have spoken in the first person."

"No, your honor,—Jones was the first person that spoke."

"My dear man," said the judge, smiling in spite of his trouble. "I mean that Mr. Nutter would not; when telling what he would himself do, have made use of the third person?"

"Of course not, your honor; I was the third person there, and he didn't want to use the at all."

"Fshaw! Look here, my good man, I simply wish you to repeat the exact words used by the defendant on that occasion. Give them to us just as they came from his lips. Now he did not say that 'would do it;' he must have said, 'I do not care,' and so on. Do you understand?"

"But, your honor, I can swear that your honor's name was not mentioned, at all—whether your honor cared or didn't care."

Walton gave it up and was forced to allow the witness to tell his story in his own way.—N. Y. Ledger.

District Court of the United States, District of Maine.

In the matter of JOHN STEVENS, Bankrupt, IN BANKRUPTCY.

This is to give notice that a petition has been presented to the Court, this 28th day of August, 1877, by John Stevens, of Rockland, a Bankrupt, praying that he may be decreed to have a full discharge from all his debts provable under the Bankrupt Act, and upon reading said petition it is ordered by the Court that a hearing be had upon the same, on the first day of October next, before the Court at Portland, in said District, at 10 o'clock A. M., and that this second Meeting of the creditors of said Bankrupt be held before Chas. Hamlin, Esq., Register, on the 28th day of September, 1877, and that third meeting of the same creditors be held on the 1st day of Sept., 1877, and that notice thereof be published in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier and the Rockland Gazette, newspapers printed and published in said District, once a week for three successive weeks, and that all the creditors who have proved their debts and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Given under my hand at Portland, in said District, this 28th day of August, A. D. 1877.

WM. P. FRYE, U. S. Marshal.

By his Deputy, JOHN M. GODFREY.

A true copy. Attest:

AMBROSE C. FLINT, Clerk for the District of Maine.

District Court of the United States, District of Maine.

In the matter of WILLIAM H. PRESCOTT, Bankrupt, IN BANKRUPTCY.

This is to give notice: That on the 15th day of October, A. D. 1877, a warrant in bankruptcy was issued against the estate of William H. Prescott of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot and State of Maine, who has been adjudged a bankrupt on his own petition; that the 27th day of October, 1877, is appointed the time at which he is to submit to the public examination, and at which the creditors may attend before Register Hamlin, at his office in said Bangor, on the 27th day of October, at 10 o'clock A. M., to consider the allowance of his certificate of discharge.

Given under my hand at Portland, in said District, this 28th day of August, A. D. 1877.

WM. P. FRYE, U. S. Marshal.

By his Deputy, JOHN M. GODFREY.

A true copy. Attest:

AMBROSE C. FLINT, Register.

SALEM LEAD COMPANY.

Warranted PURE WHITE LEAD.—Well-known in New England as the WHITE-KING, FINEST and BEST.

LEAD TAPE, 3-8 in. wide, on reels for Curtain Shades.

LEAD RIBBON, from 2½ to 8 inches wide, on reels for Builders.

LEAD PIPE, of any size or thickness.

All lead interior carriers for goods of equal quality with BROWN'S. Treasurer, Salem, Mass. jel8 Wsdly

JAPANESE GOODS.

We now have a greater variety than ever of India, Japanese and Chinese Goods, consisting of every kind of Porcelains, Pottery, Bronzes, Lacquered Ware, Silks, Toys, Paper Articles, Screens, Carved Furniture, etc., etc. Oriental Carpets, Rugs, and Table Covers. Collections of Rare and Choice Antique Cloisonne Enamels, Lacquers, Porcelains, etc.

Dealers will find it advantageous to examine our stock. New Invoices constantly arriving, and at lowest prices ever before offered.

A. A. YANTINE & CO., 827 to 829 Broadway, New York. Wsa

HENRY McLAUGHLIN,

AGENT FOR

Ingersoll Steam Drill Company

AND

Laflin & Rand Powder Co.

Explosives, Leading and Connecting Wires

Fulminators and Exploders of all kinds, Powder, Hendrons and Deaths, Cotton, Fuse, Tarpaulin, Double Tapered and Quarry Rope.

Also, Fuse, constantly on hand.

Front, May and Pleasant Streets,

BANGOR, MAINE.

U. S. BONDS.

FOOTE & FRENCH, Bankers,

7 Congress St. and 2 Congress Sq.,

BOSTON, MASS.,

ESTABLISHED, 1866,

DEALERS IN

U. S. BONDS, GOLD AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

Called Bonds Cashed,

or exchanged for U. S. 4s and New 5s, on very best terms.

Orders by Mail, Telegraph or Express promptly attended to. Address

FOOTE & FRENCH,

7 Congress Street,

oct3 1m BOSTON, MASS.

M. SCHWARTZ,

143 Exchange St.,

SAW MANUFACTURER

AND MACHINIST,

Is prepared to supply all in want of the very best warranted Saws, Mandrels, Belting, Rotary Wheels, &c., at the lowest prices.

The only Saw Manufacturer in the State that pays by steam at short notice and in the most thorough manner jan29

PEAVEY AXES.

C. A. PEAVEY. J. H. PEAVEY.

A large lot of best

PEAVEY HAND-MADE AXES.

now on hand, made of the best Jessop Steel and Norway Iron.

EVERY ONE WARRANTED

and Low Prices. Also ON AXE a small new stocked and ground lot ready to ship.

Bangor Edge Tool Co.,

or, French and Washington Sts., Bangor.

Good Oolong, Japan

—OR—

MIXED JAPAN & OOLONG

TEA,

At 35 Cents Per Pound,

5 POUNDS FOR $1.00

We are offering a strictly pure, good drinking, sweet Tea at the low price of 35 cents per pound, three pounds for $1. Any other mixed equal to Teas usually sold at 50 cents.

Also a full assortment of fine grades, up to the CHOICEST IMPORTED, at correspondingly low prices, at

TEA WHITES COFFEE STORE,

oct12 Corner Hastings Bridge, Bangor.

SUPERIOR BOSTON CELERY

Received fresh from Boston twice a week, for sale by

THOMPSON & KELLOGG,

21 and 23 Central Street.

WANTED.

Four fellows handy to work on Fat. Apply to M. MERRIAM, Practical Furrier, oct18 50 Main street.

Singing Schools and Choirs

THIS WINTER WILL USE

CHORUS CHOIR INSTRUCTION BOOK ($1.25 or $12 per doz.) by A. N. JOHNSON. Such commendations of it as "surely the best and most complete work of the kind we have ever been privileged to greet with," from the "Boston Traveller," are getting to be common as the lucky are well deserved. Instruction course and full range of music etc.

ENCORE, 75 cents, or $7.50 per doz.), by L. O. EMERSON, is already in extensive use. Fine instructive course and capital and complete collection of Glees, Quartettes, Trios, Sacred Tunes and Anthems for choirs.

PERKINS'S SINGING SCHOL ($7.75 per doz.), by W. O. PERKINS, has of course entirely different matter from that in the "Encore," but closely resembles it in plan and general excellence of contents.

SALUTATION, ($1.25, or $12 per doz.), by L. O. Emerson, is a first-class Church Music Book, with a full set of Anthems, Chants and Anthems, a full instructive course, and plenty of Examples Airs, Part-songs, &c., for practice.

ZION, ($1.25, or $12 per doz.), by W. O. PERKINS, is the latest Church Music Book of the author and of the first quality and pages, of which 100 pages are filled with Anthems, 100 pages with Metrical Tunes.

Mailed, post-free, for retail price

OLIVER DITSON & CO., BOSTON.

C. H. Ditson & Co., 845 Broadway, New York. J. E. Ditson & Co., Successors to Lee & Walker, Phila. oct13 S&W4w

BOSTON

Safe Deposit Vaults,

POST OFFICE SQUARE,

CORNER

Milk and Congress

STREETS.

Securities and Valuables Stored

AND

SAFES RENTED,

At from $10.00 to $150 a year.

THE BOSTON SAFE DEPOSIT AND TRUST CO. is authorized to receive Moneys and Property in Trust or on Deposit.

Interest allowed on Money Deposits.

President—FREDERICK H. STONE.

Vice Presidents—FREDERIC J. WILLIAMS, THOMAS TALBOT, SAMUEL C. COBB. oct4 cod4w

State of Maine.

PENOBSCOT, ss. Court of Probate, September Term, A. D. 1877.

Upon the petition of Irene Baker, widow of Edward D. Baker, late of Lamoine, in said County, deceased, for her allowance out of the personal estate of which said deceased died possessed.

ORDERED, That the said petitioner give notice to all persons interested, by causing a copy of this order to be published three weeks successively in the Bangor Weekly Courier, a newspaper published in Bangor, in said county, that they may appear at a Court of Probate for said county, to be held at Ellsworth, within and for said County, on the last Tuesday in October next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

JOHN E. GODFREY, Judge.

Attest: AMBROSE C. FLINT, Register.

A true copy of the petition and order thereon.

Attest: AMBROSE C. FLINT, Register.

ST. NICHOLAS.

"The King of all publications issued for the young on either side of the Atlantic."—Saturday Journal, London (Eng.) Observer.

The third volume of this incomparable Magazine is now completed. With its eight hundred royal octavo pages, and its six hundred illustrations, its splendid portraits, its shorter stories, poems, sketches, etc., it is a beautiful gift-book for boys and girls or an famed from 1 to 6 years of age. Price, $4, in full gilt, $5.

St. Nicholas is full of the choicest things. The publishers, in all respects, provide the best of its kind. We have never yet seen a publication for children so richly good."—The Churchman, Hartford, Conn.

ST. NICHOLAS for 1877,

Which opens with November, 1876, begins A short and very entertaining Serial from the French, "The Kingdom of the Greedy," a story full of fun for all young folks, by Mme. de Stolbeau. Another serial, of a more thrilling interest, by Sophie Swett, "HIS OWN MASTER," by J. T. Trowbridge, author of the "Jack Hazard Stories," begins in the December number.

Besides serial stories, Christmas stories, lively sketches, poems and pictures for the holidays, and more notably, illustrations of Oriental sports, with drawings by Mr. Stanley Huntley, the Christmas Holiday Number of St. Nicholas, superbly illustrated, contains a very interesting paper,

"THE BOYS OF NO. BOYHOOD," by William Cullen Bryant.

"The Heroe Hotel," a lively article, by Charles A Barnard, splendidly illustrated, "The Clock in the Sky," by Richard A. Proctor, "A Christmas Play for Indoors or Snowy School," by Dr. Eggleston, "The Recording Christmas Tree" by Lucretia P. Hale, "Poetry and Carols of Winter," by Lucy Larcom, with Prizes and Carols of Winter," by Lucy Larcom, with Prizes and

Do Not Fail to Buy ST. NICHOLAS for the Christmas Holidays. PRICE 25 cents.

During the year there will be interesting papers for boys, by William Cullen Bryant, John G. Whittier, Thomas Hughes, Mrs. Lucy Larcom, Dr. Holmes, George MacDonald, Sanford B. Hunt, Frank R. Stockton, and others.

There will be stories, sketches, and poems, of special interest to girls, by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Susan Coolidge, Sarah Winter Kellogg, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Louisa Alcott, Lucretia P. Hale, Celia Thaxter, Mary Mapes Dodge, and many others. The Editor will by all with maps, showing "The Stars of Each Month," which will be likely to surpass in interest any series on a popular subject recently given to the public.

"TWELVE SKY PICTURES," by Professor Proctor, the Astronomer,

AMUSEMENT AND INSTRUCTION, with FUN AND FROLIC, and WIT AND WISDOM, will be mingled, as heretofore, and ST. NICHOLAS will continue to delight the young and give pleasure to the old.

THE LONDON LITERARY WORLD says:

"There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of Scribner's press. All the articles, whether in prose or verse, are throbbing with vitality. * * * The illustrations and mechanical execution are both superb."

The London Daily News says: "We know of no good point on it in our own periodical literature."

GOOD NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

To meet the demand for a cheaper ST. NICHOLAS Gift Book, the price of vols. I and II has been reduced to $3 each. The three volumes, in an elegant library binding, are sold for $10 (in full gilt, $10) so that all may give their children a complete set. These volumes contain more attractive material than fifty dollars' worth of the ordinary children's books.

Subscription price, $3 a year. The three bound volumes and a subscription for this year, only $10. Subscribe with the nearest newsdealer, or send money in check, or P.O. money order, or in registered letter, to

SCRIBNER & CO., 743 Broadway, N.Y.

WANTED.

A capable girl to do general housework. Apply at 189 Essex Street. oct15 *

Bangor Post Office.

OFFICERS.

A. B. FARNHAM, - - - Postmaster.
E. A. CUMMINGS, - - - Asst Postmaster.
W. H. H. LAWRENCE, - - - Cashier.

OFFICE HOURS.

From 7 A. M. to 6 P. M.; and from 8 to 9 P. M. Sundays excepted.
On Sundays, from 9 to 10 A. M.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

MAILS CLOSE.

	A. M.	P. M.
Western,	6 45	6 30
European Railway,	6 30
Piscataquis R. R.	6 30
Cherry field and Machias,		7 30
Ellsworth,	6 45	7 30
Belfast,	6 45
Buckspt,	6 00	6 30
Dixmont,	6 45
E. Corinth and Charleston,		2 30
Levant and Exeter,		1 30
Bradford,		1 30
Monroe,	